The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

Meſſieurs HALL and SELLERS.

You will much oblige ſome of your Readers, by inſerting in your Paper the following Copy of the Petition, which was, laſt Fall, laid before the ASSEMBLY of this Province, relating to the Importation of Negroe Slaves from Guinea.

To the REPRESENTATIVES of the Freemen of the Province of Pennſylvania, in GENERAL ASSEMBLY met,

The Petition of a Number of the Inhabitants of the City and County of Philadelphia,

Reſpectfully ſheweth,

THAT the Importation of the Natives of Guinea, to be ſold and uſed as Slaves in the Provinces and Iſlands of the Britiſh Dominions in America, has long been an Occaſion of deep Concern to a great Number of the Inhabitants of this Province, as well on Account of its Inconſiſtency with the whole Tenor of the Chriſtian Religion, as becauſe of the evil Influence it has on the religious and moral Conduct of the People, and the dreadful Conſequence which, it is to be feared, will one Day attend in thoſe Parts where it prevails.

We are the more encouraged to lay this important Object before you, as we underſtand that ſome of the Southern as well as the Northern Colonies, have been led into ſerious Conſiderations of the Iniquity of the Practice, and the dangerous Situation they are in, particularly the Province of Virginia, whoſe Houſe of Burgeſſes has lately petitioned the King, from a deep Senſibility of the Danger and pernicious Conſequences which will be attendant on a Continuation of this moſt iniquitous Traffic.

We, your Petitioners, therefore moſt earneſtly beſeech you to take this Matter (which we take to be of the utmoſt Conſequence to the Welfare and Safety of the Britiſh Colonies) into your moſt ſerious Conſideration, and to uſe your utmoſt Endeavours, in making ſuch Repreſentations to the King and Parliament, as to you may appear moſt effectual, towards putting a Stop to this mighty Evil."

Copy of an Addreſs to the Guinea Merchants in England, and all others who are more or leſs concerned in the carrying on the SLAVE TRADE. Printed in London, in the Year 1760.

SIRS,

AS the Buſineſs you are concerned in, and carry on openly and publicly before the World, has a bad Aſpect, and you are ſenſible that moſt Men make Objections againſt it, and blame you for engaging in it, you are obliged to juſtify it to the World, upon the Principles of Reaſon, Equity and Humanity, to make it appear that it is no unjuſt Invaſion of the Perſons, or Encroachment on the Rights of Men, or for ever lay it aſide; and this is what every one, not only of your Fellow-ſubjects in England, but of your Fellow-men upon the Face of the Earth, who are no-ways concerned in the ſame Buſineſs, has a Right to inſiſt upon and demand from you, and ought in a proper Manner to reſent it, if you will do neither the one nor the other. But, laying aſide the Reſentment of Man, which is but of little or no Moment, in Compariſon of the Almighty, of the ſupreme Lawgiver and Judge of Mankind; think of a future Reckoning; conſider how you ſhall come off in the great and awful Day of Account! You now heap up Riches, and live in Pleaſure, but, Oh! what will you do in the End thereof? and that is not far off. What if Death ſhould ſeize upon you, and hurry you out of this World, under all that Load of Blood-guiltineſs that now lies upon your Souls. The Goſpel, I ſuppoſe I am now ſpeaking to profeſſed Chriſtians, expreſly declares, That Thieves and Murderers ſhall not inherit the Kingdom of God. Conſider that, at the ſame Time, and by the ſame Means, you now treaſure up worldly Riches, you are treaſuring up to yourſelves Wrath againſt the Day of Wrath, and Vengeance, that ſhall come upon the Workers of Iniquity, unleſs prevented by a timely Repentance: And what greater Iniquity, what Crime that is more heinous, that carries in it more complicated Guilt, can you name, than that, in the habitual, deliberate Practice of which you now live? Good God! how can you, as ſome of you do, go to the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper? How can you lift up your guilty Eyes to Heaven? How can you pray for Mercy to him that made you, or hope for any Favour from him that formed you, while you go on thus groſly and openly to diſhonour him, in debaſing, abuſing and deſtroying the nobleſt Workmanſhip of his Hands, in this lower World.

He is the Father of Men, and do you think he will not reſent ſuch Treatment of his Offſpring, whom he hath ſo loved, as to give his only begotten Son, that whoſoever believeth in him might not periſh, but have everlaſting Life. This Love of God to Man, revealed in the Goſpel, is a great Aggravation of your Guilt; for if God ſo loved us, we ought alſo to love one another. You remember the Fate of the Servant, who took Hold of his Fellow-ſervant, who was in his Debt, and caſt him into Priſon: Think then, and tremble to think what will be your Fate, who take your Fellow-ſervants by the Throat, that owe you not a Penny, and make them Priſoners for Life. Give yourſelves Leave to reflect impartially upon, and conſider the Nature of, this MAN-TRADE, which if you do, your Hearts muſt needs relent, if you have not loſt all Senſe of Humanity, all Pity and Compaſſion toward thoſe of your own Kind, to think what Calamities, what Havock and Deſtruction among them, you have been the Authors of, for filthy Lucre Sake.

God grant you may be made ſenſible of your Guilt, and repent in Time; and as this is my hearty Deſire and Prayer to God for you, I hope you will excuſe the Plainneſs and Freedom of this Addreſs in your ſincere Friend, who would be glad to do you any Good that lies in his Power, &c. &c.

J. PHILMORE.

FATHER ABRAHAM's ALMANACK, for the Year 1774.

 Our kind Cuſtomers are requeſted to obſerve, that the ingenious DAVID RITTENHOUSE, A. M. of this City, has favoured us with the aſtronomical Calculations of our Almanack for this Year, therefore they may be moſt firmly relied on.

Philadelphia, October 2, 1773.

RANDLE MITCHELL,

AT his ſtore, in Water-ſtreet, near Walnut-ſtreet, is now ſelling off his ſtock of European and India GOODS, imported in the laſt veſſels from LONDON and BRISTOL (conſiſting of a general aſſortment, ſuitable for the ſeaſon) remarkably low, for caſh, or three months credit. He has a parcel of well laid in cutlery and hard wares, nails, &c. now imported from Briſtol, which he will ſell off in the packages, to any merchant or ſhopkeeper, at prime coſt, on the uſual credit.

As he is determined to quit trade, and ſettle his affairs, he will ſell off all his remaining goods at public ſale, at his own ſtore, in Water-ſtreet, conſiſting of a very general aſſortment of goods, to a conſiderable value, on the following very advantageous terms for the purchaſers, viz. All perſons purchaſing above 50 l. value, to have ſix months credit; all perſons purchaſing only 20 l. value, and under 50 l. three months; all perſons purchaſing but 20 l. or under, to pay caſh for them; all purchaſers on credit, to give their notes for the amount they may buy; any perſon not known to the owner, or vendue maſter, to give ſecurity for the ſums they purchaſe on credit, if required. Hand bills, with the particulars of the goods, will be diſtributed through the city and country, a week before the ſale. The ſtore will be open, and the goods arranged in order, for any perſon to view them, three days before the ſale. The public ſale will begin on Monday, the firſt of November next, and continue from day to day until all are ſold. Clerks will be ready to ſettle with any purchaſers who may be going away, and either take their notes, or caſh. Any perſons purchaſing on three months credit, who may chuſe to pay the money, may have a diſcount of 2¼ per cent. any purchaſing on ſix months, who chuſe to pay caſh, may have a diſcount of five per cent. for prompt payment. The terms are ſo very convenient and advantageous to the purchaſers, that they muſt ſee their intereſt in purchaſing at the ſale, where town and country ſhopkeepers may be ſupplied. He now deſires and requeſts all perſons indebted to him above ſix months, to pay off ſuch ballances, which will materially oblige him, and prevent trouble to themſelves. 4 W.

PHILIP MARCHINTON

Hath imported, by the laſt ſhips from LONDON, LIVERPOOL, and HULL,

A LARGE and neat aſſortment of EUROPEAN and INDIA GOODS, ſuitable to the ſeaſon; which he will ſell at the very loweſt terms, wholeſale and retail, at his new ſtore, the fourth door below the north eaſt corner of Second-ſtreet, in Market-ſtreet; amongſt which are, ſuperfine, fine, and low-priced broadcloths, of all kinds, foreſt and lamb-ſkin cloths, coating and duffils, Engliſh and India blankets, velvets, velverets, corderies and cotton counterpains, hair and worſted ſhags, Ruſſia and Iriſh ſheetings and linens, cotton chintzes and callicoes, ſattins and peelongs, flowered and plain, ſilk and worſted ſtockings, gloves, mitts, cap and breeches patterns, black India paduaſoys and taffeties, cambricks, lawns, muſlin, and table linens, ſilk and muſlin ſpotted and plain gauze, ticking, handkerchiefs, and bed bunts, ribbons and ferreting, bombazeens, blue and black ruſſel, 17 and 20 inch calimancoes, double and ſingle cambletées, ſtripe, changeable and plain crape, doreſettees, grograms and bird-eyes, double and ſingle damaſk, meſſinets, and Mecklenburgs, ſhaloons, rattinets, durants and tammies, jewellery and cutlery, and almoſt every article commonly imported.

N. B. As the ſaid MARCHINTON doth import and buy every article from the very beſt market, he flatters himſelf, that it is in his power to ſell as low as any ſhop or ſtore in the city, and he is determined to make it his particular ſtudy to pleaſe all, that are ſo kind as to favour him with their good cuſtom. 6 W.

Brandywine Creek, Cheſter County, October 1, 1773.

THE Public is hereby informed, that the plantation adverтiſed in the Pennſylvania Gazette, laſt Auguſt, by Mrs. Hannah Gordon, for ſale, is not yet diſpoſed of; but the ſubſcriber will treat with any perſon, on the ſpot, who wants to purchaſe this (as he thinks) valuable farm, containing upwards of 200 acres; its pleaſant ſituation on Brandywine Creek, five miles above the New Bridge, is equalled by the goodneſs of the uplands, and excellent bottoms for meadows; there is a ſeat for mills, the frame of a ſaw-mill up, and the race dug; the farm-houſe, where he now lives, is tolerable, a good cloſe barn, and a large lofted ſtable; the place is in good repair, but the ſouth bottom, of about 30 acres, is not thoroughly improved into meadow, which it is very proper for. HARRY GORDON.

N. B. Some mares, and colts, of different ages, to be ſold, now at the above place. ¶

WHEREAS I, the ſubſcriber, did, about a year ago, give a Note of Hand, for the ſum of Eight Pounds, to David Seyferbeldt, now deceaſed; and whereas I did this day tender the ſame money, with intereſt, to the Adminiſtratrix of ſaid Seyferbeldt, which ſhe refuſed to receive and deliver me my Note; this therefore is to forewarn all perſons from taking an aſſignment of the ſaid Note, as I am determined not to pay the ſame till compelled by law. Witneſs my hand, the 30th of September, 1773. ¶ DUNCAN M'MULLAN.

TO BE SOLD,

THE Griſt-mill, Saw-mill, and Plantation, late the property of John Bainbridge, ſituated upon Rocky Brook, in the township of Windſor, county of Middleſex, and province of New-Jerſey. The plantation contains about 56 acres of excellent land, on which are erected (beſides the mills) two good frame dwelling-houſes, a blackſmith's ſhop, ſtore-houſes, &c. The griſt-mill is in good order, has two pair of ſtones, one of them French burr, and ſtands upon as fine a ſtream as any in the province; for, in the drieſt ſeaſon, it was never known to fail, and being in the heart of a fine wheat country, it has every advantage for carrying on the buſineſs extenſively. The ſaw-mill is likewiſe in good order. This ſtand is alſo one of the beſt in the province for a ſtore, one having been kept there for many years paſt; and as it lies about midway between Philadelphia and New-York, the communication to both theſe places (the ſtages from Burlington and Bordentown going twice a week) renders the tranſportation eaſy and at a ſmall expence. By the Mercury Packet, Captain DILLON, from Falmouth, and the Ship Earl of Dunmore, Captain LAWRENCE, from London, both arrived at New-York, we have the following Advices, viz.

WARSAW, July 22.

An account of the operations of the Ruſſian Army, and the important victory gained over the Turks.

BY a Courier which paſſed through this city, in his way from Bulgaria to Peterſburgh, we have learned the following particulars of the Ruſſian grand army's paſſing the Danube, and likewiſe a circumſtantial account of their preſent ſituation on the oppoſite ſide of that river, and what has happened from the 12th to the 28th of June.

Count Romanzow having received information that the Grand Vizir had divided his army into three diviſions, each forming a different army, and that theſe different bodies could not poſſibly join in three days, reſolved to paſs the Danube, and attack them in that ſituation.

The Generals Weiſman, Stupuchin, and Potemkin, who had formerly paſſed the Danube with a conſiderable body of troops, ſent notice to Count Romanzow, that they could attempt nothing of conſequence till ſuch time as the grand army, or at leaſt a great part of it, had paſſed the river, which made Count Romanzow make all imaginable haſte; and therefore he, attended by ſome officers, dreſſed in Turkiſh habits, went in a ſmall boat, to take a view of the river, and find out a place proper for paſſing his army. He at firſt intended to attempt it near Jalonicza, but finding the ſtream too rapid, the river to broad, and the oppoſite ſhore too difficult to make good his landing, he made choice of a place near Gurobaly, where the Turks, knowing the eaſineſs of paſſing, kept 6000 men intrenched, in order to defend it. Count Romanzow having fixed upon this place, gave notice to his Generals, acquainting them of the time, and ordered them to march and attack the enemy, which would not only give him an opportunity to paſs the river, but likewiſe of obtaining an eaſy victory, as he would attack the enemy in the rear, and ſo encloſe them betwixt two fires. Theſe diſpoſitions being made, and the 18th fixed upon for putting them in execution, the Generals Stupuchin and Potemkin marched upwards of 70 werſtes in 24 hours, and though fatigued with ſo long a march, attacked the enemy, who had ſcarcely time to put themſelves in a poſture of defence. As ſoon as the engagement was begun, the firſt diviſion of the grand army appeared upon the river, which ſo terrified the Turks, that they fled, and left their entrenchment, taking their route through a hollow paſſage that leads through the mountains towards Siliſtria, after having loſt 400 men. General Weiſman took poſſeſſion of the entrenchment, and about 2000 Carabineers and Coſſacks were ſent to purſue the runaways, who killed about 300, and took ſome priſoners, and among the reſt the Baſſa, who had the chief command, and an Aga. They alſo took 18 pieces of cannon, and 6 ſtandards.

The grand army paſſed the Danube without loſing a man; and Count Romanzow being informed that the Grand Vizir had detached 35,000 men, under three Baſſas, and that one diviſion of them were intended to protect Siliſtria, diſpatched General Weiſman with 6000 men, to take poſſeſſion of the hollow way, or paſſage that leads to that fortreſs, which was immediately executed, though the Ruſſians were obliged to fight their way almoſt during the whole march, ſeveral ſkirmiſhes happening the ſame day (June 22) in which about 200 Turks were killed, and many made priſoners.

General Weiſman having marched to cut off the communication between the garriſon of Siliſtria and the Turkiſh army, within 5 werſtes of that city, found a Baſſa of three horſe-tails and 6000 men encamped there, who being acquainted with the Ruſſian General's deſign, ſent notice to Oſman Baſſa, who advanced with 8000 men. The Turkiſh army then 14,000, immediately attacked the Ruſſian light Horſe; but as Oſman Baſſa could not ſtand the fire from their infantry, he attacked them ſword in hand, and would have forced his way to the artillery, had not the Ruſſian Grenadiers received the Turks with fixed bayonets. The paſſage being narrow, was now warmly diſputed, and Oſman Baſſa, after loſing 800 men, found himſelf obliged to retreat, though it was with a deſign to make another attack. In the mean time the ſecond diviſion of the Ruſſian army paſſed the river, and General Stupuchin, with 6 regiments of infantry, was diſpatched to join Gen. Weiſman. Oſman Baſſa made a ſecond attack, but the Ruſſians being reinforced, received him with great bravery, a regular battle enſued, and the Ruſſians gained a complete victory. The Turks, after loſing 3000 men, fled in the utmoſt confuſion, and were purſued by the Ruſſians, who took 900 priſoners, and all their tents, cannon, baggage, and ſtandards, &c. They made themſelves maſters of the Turkiſh entrenchments, and blocked up the city of Siliſtria, which they found almoſt impregnable. Several regiments were left to beſiege that fortreſs, under the command of General Stupuchin, and the reſt went in ſearch of the enemy. In this action the Ruſſians loſt not above 900 men, but the brave Major Olſuljew is killed.

The news of this event alarmed the Grand Vizir, who ſent two Baſſas, with 10,000 men each under their command, to join Oſman Baſſa, who encamped near Pliſka, and whoſe army, by this and the other reinforcements he had received, amounted to 35,000 men. General Weiſman ſtill continuing to purſue the enemy, found his army almoſt ſurrounded; and though his army was not above one third of the enemy in number, on the 26th he attacked them; but being unable to ſtand the enemy's fire, he attacked them ſword in hand, and entirely routed them, killed 14,000, took 3000 priſoners, all their cannon, baggage, and the military cheſt; and when this courier ſet out, the Ruſſians were ſtill in purſuit of the enemy. General Weiſman was killed in the engagement, and his body ſent to Bucharest to be buried.

This victory is of the utmoſt conſequence to the Ruſſians, as the Grand Vizir, with the remains of his army, has been obliged to retire to the mountains of Hæmus, far in Romelia; and Count Romanzow, finding his preſence no longer neceſſary on that ſide of the Danube, repaſſed the river. The Generals Potemkin, Suwalow, and Stupuchin, are marched towards Romelia, in order to attack the Grand Vizir, of which undertaking we ſoon expect an account, together with their blocking up Conſtantinople.

Paris, July 24. The council of war held at Lille, had condemned thirty-three officers of a regiment, for refuſing to ſerve under a Lieutenant-Colonel placed over them. Some are to be broke, and ſent to certain priſons for a number of years, and others for an indeterminate time. The Major has been re-eſtabliſhed, but the Lieutenant-Colonel is abſolutely ordered under arreſt for three months, for preſuming to compromiſe the authority which his Majeſty has placed in him. The above judgment, which carries with it no mark of ignominy, was ſent before its publication to the Marquis de Monteynard, who immediately returned orders to the Colonel to diſpoſe of the vacant employs, particularly in favour of thoſe who had not refuſed obedience; and the 17th inſtant judgment was executed, their employs given away in preſence of all the troops at Lille, and nineteen of the officers were immediately conducted to the different priſons. Every one laments their hard fate, as they were all men of tried courage, and were guilty of no fault, but that of refuſing to ſerve under a man whom they diſliked.

LONDON.

July 27. By letters from Hanover we hear, that the King of Great-Britain, being acquainted with the diſtreſſes of his ſubjects in that Electorate, has remitted a part of the taxes, amounting in the whole to one fifth of the ſums collected in the two preceding years.

Letters from Turin mention, that the Duke de Chablais is preparing to ſet out for Vienna, to take the command lately accepted by him in the Imperial army.

They write from Toulon, that the fleet there ſtill continues in readineſs to put to ſea at the ſhorteſt notice, notwithſtanding what has been ſaid to the contrary.

It is reported, that Lieutenant General Clavering will be appointed Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's forces in North-America, in the room of General Gage.

July 29. The great emigrations that have been made to America, by the artificers and ſmall holders of farms in Ireland and Scotland, for a great while paſt, particularly within theſe few years, occaſioned a meeting of the landed Gentlemen of thoſe two nations laſt week, at a noted coffee-houſe in Weſtminſter; when taking into their conſideration the diſagreeable conſequences that muſt proceed from ſuch peregrinations, viz. the depopulation of theſe countries, and of courſe the fall of lands, came to a reſolution of letting their eſtates in future in ſmall farms, and at ſuch eaſy rents, as will enable the holders to pay their landlords, and not only enjoy the neceſſaries, but the conveniences of life.

All the induſtry and indefatigable attention of Mr. Walpole, our Miniſter at the Court of Liſbon, in order to procure a reſtoration of the laſt rights of the Britiſh commerce, have, it is ſaid, proved fruitleſs; for, inſtead of the ſpirit of antient treaty, the Engliſh are become, from the moſt, the leaſt favoured nation, who trade to any part of the Portugueſe dominions. The return of the above mentioned Gentleman is expected to be early in the month of September; and it is the opinion of moſt people who pretend to know any thing of the matter, that no perſon will be appointed in his room, till ſome very important conceſſions are made by the Court of Liſbon.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, July 10.

"We are afraid that the little which is left us will become a prey to a new civil war, as we hear that another new Confederacy is juſt formed at Poſen, that are reſolved to bear arms for their own liberty in particular, and for the Poliſh liberty in general; and it is whiſpered here, that the cities of Dantzic, Thorn, Poſen and Lemburgh, are the ſupporters of that Confederacy; and that a very high Perſonage is the patron, and chief promoter of it."

By letters from Dantzic we learn, that the oppreſſions of the Pruſſians have roſe to an alarming heighth.

It is reported, that Governor Hutchinſon is ſhortly expected here from America.

A report is very current at the weſt end of the town, that Thomas Pownall, Eſq; Member for Tregony, will be re-appointed Governor of the Province of Maſſachuſetts-Bay, in New-England.

We hear that preparations are making at the Tower for a new coinage of guineas and half guineas.

A letter received at Bonny river in Africa mentions, that a number of pirates, called Joes, who ſome years ago interrupted our African trade, had again begun their depredations; but ſix of the ringleaders were taken and hung in chains on floating ſtages, in different parts of the river, which had terrified the reſt, and they were now pretty quiet.

Extract of a Letter from Genoa, July 1.

"The behaviour of the Ruſſians in the Mediterranean towards the little ſtates of Italy is very extraordinary. They in a manner compel the inhabitants where they land to furniſh them with proviſions, &c. on what terms they chooſe to give; and in many reſpects afford occaſion, by their behaviour, to raiſe apprehenſions of a ſerious nature. A Ruſſian frigate, called the St. Baſil, has juſt arrived here from Count Orlow's rendezvous at the Iſle of Chios, with an officer of ſome diſtinction on board, who has a commiſſion to ſolicit leave for the Ruſſian ſhips to harbour in any of the ports belonging to the Genoeſe. But his commiſſion wears the appearance of command rather than ſolicitation. The Republic has not as yet given its anſwer."

July 31. Letters from Copenhagen adviſe, that his Daniſh Majeſty had juſt ſigned a teſtamentary diſpoſition, concerning the adminiſtration of the ſtate, if his Majeſty ſhould die before the Hereditary Prince arrives at a proper age to take upon himſelf the reins of government.

A propoſal has been laid before the Earl of Dartmouth, for aboliſhing the different forms of government in America, and forming them into one; New-York, as it is centrical, to be the metropolis, and each province to ſend Repreſentatives in the manner of our counties. Some other propoſals were made at the ſame time for producing a reconciliation, which it is hoped will be attended to.

It is very confidently reported, that a Great Perſonage has declared, "that no more penſions ſhall be granted on the Iriſh eſtabliſhment, either for life or years, without the approbation of a full Privy Council."

Extract of a Letter from the Hague, July 23.

"Le Sieur Roſſignol, the unfortunate Conſul General for this Republic in Africa, lately ſent another letter to the States General, wherein he declares, that he had not, at the time of the date of his letter, received their High Mightineſſes laſt orders, relative to the demands of the Emperor of Morocco; and further ſays, that in a late conference with that Prince, upon the ſubject of renewing the treaty with the Republic of Holland, he told him, that, in order to put an end to this negociation, he had determined to ſend an Ambaſſador to the States General, eſcorted by two frigates and two Xebecks. Their High Mightineſſes ſent him for anſwer, that he muſt uſe his utmoſt endeavours to engage the Emperor to change his mind, and tell him, in the moſt polite manner, that the States General could not conſent to admit into any of the harbours of their Republic any Barbarian ſhips, and therefore it would be quite needleſs for his Highneſs to put himſelf to the expence of ſuch an embaſſy; that moreover the States General were determined to abide by the reſolutions they had taken with reſpect to the Barbary powers, eſpecially that of not furniſhing them with arms or warlike ſtores of any kind, of all which his Highneſs had long ſince been informed, &c. So that poor Roſſignol runs a great riſk of loſing his head, unleſs he can find means to make his eſcape."

Yeſterday Captain Campbel, an American Chief, and in an American dreſs, was preſented to his Majeſty, at St. James's, and moſt graciouſly received. He was introduced by General Gage, Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's forces in America.

We are informed that the Duke of Leinſter's conditions of coinciding with the meaſures of government in Ireland are, that a REFORMATION ſhall take place, particularly with reſpect to Placemen and Penſioners; the annihilation of thoſe added in the adminiſtration of Lord Townſhend, is eſpecially inſiſted on by his Grace. This makes the five new Commiſſioners of the Cuſtoms, and other newly made Placemen and Penſioners, TREMBLE.

They write from Dublin, that notwithſtanding the very ſtrenuous endeavour of Government, very great oppoſition is expected to be made againſt them; Lord C-----n, who carries more than forty Members with him into the Lower Houſe, having declared himſelf on the ſide of the country.

"We are now well aſſured here, that the naval preparations which have of late been going forward at Cadiz, Seville, &c. are not intended to act wholly againſt the Moors in the preſent renewed war. But ſome of the ſhips thus fitted out, are now formed into a ſquadron, at Alicant, conſiſting of ten ſail of the line, two of which are 80 gun ſhips; and ſix ſail of frigates, with two ſloops and eight tranſports, on board of which are embarked four regiments of foot, with artillery and ſtores. This armament is intended for the South Seas, to act againſt the Inſurgents in Chili."

They write from Vienna, that the Venetian Reſident has ſuddenly quitted that city, on what account is not known.

Some letters from Berlin mention, that the Prince Royal of Pruſſia is preparing to ſet off on ſome important buſineſs for Warſaw; but the nature of it has not yet tranſpired.

The Ambaſſador ſent here by the Great Mogul was formerly an officer in the ſervice of the Eaſt-India Company: He is ſaid to be veſted with powers to cede certain territories to the crown of Great-Britain, which were formerly given to the Eaſt-India Company, ſubject to the payment of an annual rent, which condition the Mogul complains has not been performed by the ſervants of the Company.

Aug. 2. The Hanoverians are ſo incenſed at one of the Houſe of Strelitz, being appointed Governor of Hanover, that they daily threaten a revolt. The Prince of Brunſwick is ſo incenſed, that he is now treating with France as Generaliſſimo of their army. The Princeſs of Brunſwick came over to the Court of Great-Britain ſome time ſince, to expoſtulate upon this partial buſineſs, but was recalled by her Royal Conſort with indignation.

"We are informed, by good Authority, that they are very buſy at the Court of Copenhagen in ſearching the archives, and making out the right that the Danes have to poſſeſs the countries of Oldenburgh and Delmenhorſt, as well as thoſe diſtricts which they took in the laſt northern war from Charles the Twelfth; from which it appears, that the diſputes between Sweden and Denmark are not entirely ſettled as yet; nay, ſeveral aſſert, that the Court of Stockholm inſiſts, that all the countries, provinces, and diſtricts, of which the Swedes were diſpoſſeſſed in the laſt war, and are ſtill poſſeſſed by the neighbouring powers, be reſtored to the Crown of Sweden."

Yeſterday Count Bentinck, one of the Members of the States of Holland, arrived in town from the Hague.

It was yeſterday, ſays an Evening Paper, reported on 'Change, that another attempt has been made on the life of the King of Portugal, by a Prieſt, who had drawn a dagger from under his habit to ſtab, whilſt his Majeſty was in private conference with him; that his Majeſty ſeeing it a drawing, jumped from his ſeat into the next apartment, where ſome Noblemen were in waiting, who went to ſeize the villain, but before they got to him, he had put an end to his own life with the ſame dagger.

They write from Berlin, that the King of Pruſſia lately gave, with his own hand, a gold medal, value fifty ducats, to a young woman, who preſented to his Majeſty nine male children, born in lawful wedlock, the joint lives of herſelf and huſband not exceeding forty-ſix years.

"Notwithſtanding the various accounts which appear in all the foreign prints, reſpecting the advantages gained by the army under Marſhal Romanzow againſt the Turks, it is certain that all the advantages do not reſt on the ſide of the Ruſſians. In almoſt all the capital actions which they have won, they have paid very dearly for them, loſing in general more men than the Turks, who are grown deſperate, and fight bravely. A reinforcement of 2500 horſe and 6000 foot are preparing to march from hence for Moldavia."

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, July 26.

"His Swediſh Majeſty ſeems poſitively determined to encreaſe, and firmly eſtabliſh his army, which uſed to conſiſt of 48,000 men, but is to be augmented to 74,000. Recruits are now raiſing, and every preparation making, to compleat the augmentation, which is certainly intended to act againſt Finland, or Livonia; and it is publicly and certainly known, that the French are uſing all their influence with his Majeſty to prevail with him to make a diverſion in favour of the Turks, which it is not improbable but his Majeſty will ſoon comply with."

They write from Hamburgh, that the claim of Count Schomberg on that city is renewed.

Some letters from Madrid mention, that the heads of ſeveral religious houſes, with their papers, have been lately ſeized; but on what account is yet a ſecret.

In order to ſtrengthen the good underſtanding between their Britannic and Catholic Majeſties, a ſcheme is on foot, according to which Great-Britain is to give up Falkland's Iſlands, in conſideration of an equivalent being given to her in the Weſt-Indies. If this ſcheme takes effect, it is ſaid, the limits of the navigation of the American ſeas will be ſo regulated, that diſputes, for the future, will be in a great meaſure prevented.

"We have this moment received advice of the ſoldiers and inhabitants of Grodno having riſen on the foreign troops in that city, and after ſlaughtering ſome, drove the remainder entirely without the walls. No ſooner was this action known here, than the Auſtrian and Ruſſian Generals ordered a detachment from their armies, of 5000 men each, to march immediately and reduce the city to obedience."

Theſe propoſitions have been declined by the Turks, in conſequence of which his Imperial Majeſty has declared, that by his late treaty with the Empreſs of Ruſſia, he muſt aſſiſt her againſt the Ottoman Porte, in the preſent war.*"

We have advice from Madrid, that orders have lately been ſent to the Havanna, to ſuffer no nation but their own to trade there; and it was ſaid, there were orders alſo to be extended to all the Spaniſh provinces of the continent, and a number of Guarda Coſtas have been commiſſioned to put them in execution.

We hear from good authority, that the fleet will be kept up, in order to be in readineſs in caſe of a rupture, which is much expected.

We are informed that the frequent diſpatches which have lately arrived here from Copenhagen, are in reference to an increaſe of ſettlement to Queen Matilda, which our Court has peremptorily inſiſted on. As ſhe is to reſide in England, it is reſolved that his Daniſh Majeſty ſhall contribute to make her reſidence in ſome degree adequate to her rank; for which our Court is highly applauded by every unprejudiced party, who are enemies to cruelty and oppreſſion.

Aug. 10. It is ſaid, that in Conſequence of the ungrateful Behaviour of the Court of Portugal, in impriſoning Britiſh Merchants, and giving every poſſible Diſcouragement to the Trade carried on between the two Nations, for remedying whereof many humble Memorials have been preſented to the King, and Council of Commerce, all Connection will be broken off, and an Anſwer demanded by an Engliſh Admiral; and that he only waits for the Return of Mr. Walpole, who is expected in England in a few Days.

Extract of a letter from Conſtantinople, June 26.

"An Emir Baſſa, attended by 30 Spahis, has juſt arrived here, with the following Account of the city of Bagdat being taken by the Perſians.

"A great number of Perſian pilgrims arrived at Bagdat in the month of April laſt, in order to viſit the tombs of the prophet Ali, and ſome of the other Imanies, which lay not far from the city. Theſe pilgrims, amounting to near 1500, and having an eſcort of fifty ſoldiers, gave the Beglerbeg of Bagdat ſome ſuſpicion, who in conſequence denied them admittance into the city, but aſſigned them ſome caravenſeras in the ſuburbs, on the weſtern ſide of the Tigris. This lodgment the Perſians were obliged to ſubmit to, which they did with much reluctance, but manifeſted their diſcontent in ſuch a manner, that confirmed the Viceroy in his opinion, that they came with other views than thoſe of religion. This opinion was not ill founded, as in about ten days from the arrival of the pilgrims, ſome horſemen arrived in Bagdat, with an account of a Perſian army of 60,000 men, having entered the Province of Chalde, and was within two days march of the City. The Beglerbeg, on this intelligence, made every preparation for defence, and mustered all the garrison, but unhappily some mutinies having reigned amongst the men, on account of their pay, they refused to fight, and deserted in great numbers to the Persians in the western suburbs, who had now thrown off their disguise, and appeared what they really were, soldiers. The Viceroy, thus deserted, retired with about 2000 Janissaries into the castle at the north west corner, on the river Tigris. The Persian army had now arrived, and to their great joy, entered the city without striking a stroke, and possessed themselves of every part but the castle, which the Beglerbeg had fortified, and declared he would die in it before he gave it up.

Letters from Petersburgh advise, that an order has been issued to the Commander in Chief of Astracan, and to the Governor of Terki, in Circassian Russia, to levy ten thousand Tartars, who are to be sent, with other recruits, to fill up the regiments under Field Marshal Romanzow, which are said to be greatly reduced in numbers.

Aug. 11. They write from Copenhagen, that his Danish Majesty has concluded a treaty with Russia, wherein he stipulates, in consideration of a subsidy of 60,000 Rubles per ann. to keep on foot for three years, 5000 foot, and 2000 horse, to be employed as that Court shall direct.

We hear a scheme is on foot, for every province in North-America to furnish a sufficient number of guard-ships for the defence of the colonies, and to be manned and victualled at their separate expence.

"The King's physicians have at last given it as their opinion, that his Majesty is past recovery; his increasing illness, joined to his years, making it almost beyond a possibility that he should long survive; and as his death will cause a great alteration in the system of politics in this country, it is much to be feared some commotions will succeed thereon.

Aug. 12. Yesterday there was a Levee at St. James's, but no Council; the Earl of Rochford, Lord Barrington, and Sir Jeffery Amherst, attended; and had a long Conference with his Majesty on some intended Promotions in the Army.

A letter from the Hague of the 19th inst. says, "The Prince of Denmark East-Indiaman is just arrived here from the Cape of Good Hope, by whom we have an account that the pirate ship, carried in there, which had been announced in the papers to be the Aurora English man of war, proves to be a vessel bought and fitted out at Batavia by some Merchant there, for a voyage on the coast, but that the crew mutinied, and after murdering the Captain and seven more persons, turned pirates, and had robbed different ships of immense plunder, particularly a Swedish vessel from Sunda, out of which they took bale goods to a large amount. The person who commanded her, and six others, were tried by a Court Martial, and executed."

BOSTON, September 27.

Notwithstanding the glimmering Hopes afforded us, on the Arrival of Capt. Lyde, from London, of an Alteration of the Measures of the Ministry; by the most creditable Intelligence received since by Capt. Symmes, we may venture to assure our Readers, that, considering the Prejudices of all about the Throne, we are so far from having a radical Redress of Grievances, as that even the withdraw of the grievous Instructions to the Governor is not likely to be advised. That a few Members of Parliament, and perhaps some in high Office, have in a Degree an Idea of our growing Importance, and upon that Account, wish that some Means may be found of perfect Reconciliation; yet that none of these seem willing to be active in our Favour. That a Plan of Reconciliation had been talked of, to be formed by a noble Lord, but it could not be effected while the Colonies claimed an exclusive Right, common to all British Subjects, to taxing themselves for the Support of their Governors, Judges, &c. being contrary to the Parliamentary Revenue Acts; and in short, that any essential Change in the Minds and Measures of Administration is not to be expected.

The Philadelphia Papers mention, that Dr. Franklin is soon expected in that City from London. The Endeavours of that Gentleman, who is Agent for several Colonies, may not have availed, to alter the Determination of the British Ministry still to persevere in their Plan of American Policy, which may be the Occasion of his Intentions to return to his own Country; but a late Petition and Remonstrance which he had not received when the last Vessel left England, may occasion his tarrying longer than is at present expected.

NEW-YORK, September 30.

Extract of a Letter from London, dated July 17.

"All our great folks are dispersed through their several counties, or gone to Paris, the Spa, and other countries, so that the summer vacation is already commenced. The Spaniards will have occasion for a great part of their forces to defend their distant territories, as you will find by the news-papers, that the oppressed Chilesians have drove them out of almost every town in that province. The Czarina has relinquished all her share of Poland, to her partitioning confederates, in lieu of a guarantee from Austria and Prussia of all her claims upon the Turks, as announced at the treaties of Fockzani and Buckarest, which will give her a free communication with the Euxine, Archipelago and Mediterranean seas, besides other immense advantages to her people and their commercial interest. The Ottoman territories in Europe are now very likely to be divided between this great power and the Emperor of Germany, a part of whose forces we have lately been told, by persons immediately arrived from his well appointed army, have marched in order to second the operations of Marshal Romanzow, whose troops have again beaten the infidels, and taken the important post of Silistria. Mr. Crabb Bolton, chairman of the India company, carried his point in the India House, a few days ago, when it was determined that tea should be sent to America; he was opposed in very elegant and cogent terms by the Duke of Richmond, who is in the highest esteem in this city.

The principal pursuer of Ford and King, Mr. Scott who, on account of his particular attachment to one of the present unfortunate persons at Morris Town, was extremely interested in taking the first of these men, it returned without being able to come up with them, the persons he had chased in expectation of their proving to be those he went after, were two Indian traders; all that he could learn from these was, that Richardson of Philadelphia, and Thomas Budd, joined Ford and King a little beyond Juniata, from whence they all sat out together, well armed, for the Mississippi, so that there remain very little hopes of their being secured.

Neither Mr. Douw nor Mr. Mc Farlane, met with the fate of the four Canadians murdered by the Senecas, as mentioned in the papers, both of these Gentlemen being safe and in perfect health.

October 4. Capt. Dillon, the 18th of August, in Lat. 45: 43, Long. 20: 35, met with a very hard Gale of Wind, and the next Day he fell in with a French Ship, from Guadaloupe for Bourdeaux, that had lost her Mizen-mast in the same Gale; the 19th, in Lat. 43, Long. 36: 17, he saw the dead Body of a Woman, and Parts of several Masts, that appeared to be newly cut.

The 13th ult. in Lat. 33: 52, Captain Dillion spoke with Lambert Drake, in a Ship from Ferrol, bound for Philadelphia, 40 Days out.

When a certain Person complimented the King upon the Return of the Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in North-America, his Majesty answered, yes, Sir, he is returned, and has brought his Character with him; a Reply, that proved no small Reproach to one, who had a few Weeks before been condemned in a Court of Justice to pay a Fine of 3000l. for Oppression in the Country where he had commanded.

PHILADELPHIA, October 6.

BY THE HONOURABLE

JOHN PENN, Esquire,

Governor and Commander in Chief of the Province of Pennsylvania, and Counties of New-Castle, Kent and Sussex, on Delaware,

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it appears, by sundry Affidavits, taken before one of the Judges of the Province of New-Jersey, that JOSEPH RICHARDSON, late of the County of Philadelphia, and a certain SAMUEL FORD, stand charged with seloniously forging and counterfeiting the Bills of Credit of this Province, and passing the same, to the great Injury of His Majesty's liege Subjects. AND WHEREAS the Endeavours hitherto used for apprehending them have been ineffectual, and it is highly expedient, for the Discouragement of such pernicious and atrocious Crimes, that the said Joseph Richardson, and Samuel Ford, should be brought to condign and exemplary Punishment; I HAVE therefore thought fit, with the Advice of the Council, to issue this my Proclamation, hereby promising and engaging, that the public Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, shall be paid to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend the said Joseph Richardson, and safely deliver him to the Sheriff of the City and County of Philadelphia, in the Goal of the said County; and also, that the like Reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, shall be paid to any Person or Persons, who shall apprehend the said Samuel Ford, and deliver him to the said Sheriff, in the same Goal. AND I DO hereby strictly charge, enjoin and require all Judges, Justices, Sheriffs, Constables, and all other His Majesty's faithful and liege Subjects within my Government, to make diligent Search and Enquiry after the said Joseph Richardson, and Samuel Ford, and to use their utmost Endeavours to apprehend and secure them, so that they may be brought to Justice.

GIVEN under my Hand, and the Great Seal of the said Province of Pennsylvania, at Philadelphia, the Fourth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord One Thousand Seven Hundred and Seventy-three, and in the Thirteenth Year of His Majesty's Reign.

Yesterday, at a Meeting of the COMMON COUNCIL, WILLIAM FISHER, Esq was chosen Mayor of this City for the ensuing Year.

Captain Richardson, arrived at New-York from Chatham, on the 5th ult. in Lat. 40, Long. 27: 41, spoke with Capt. Brown, from Virginia for Glasgow.

On Friday Morning departed this Life, after a tedious and lingering Illness, Mr. PETER STEWART, late of the Island of Jamaica, and on Sunday his Remains were decently interred in the Pine-Street Meeting-House Yard, where they were respectfully attended by a very great Number of the Inhabitants of this City.

On Thursday, the 23d of September, departed this Life, at Dover, in Kent County, in the 37th Year of her Age, and after a painful Illness, Mrs. REBECCA KILLEN, the Wife of WILLIAM KILLEN, Esq; of that Town, to the irreparable Loss of a disconsolate Husband, and a numerous, distressed Family: And on Saturday following her Remains were decently interred in the Presbyterian Burying-ground there.

Possessed of a mild and amiable Disposition, which was early cultivated by a virtuous Education, she appeared on the Stage of Life universally respected, as she has now retired from it equally lamented.---As a Wife, she excelled in all that is dutiful and affectionate; as a Parent, was tender and indulgent to an uncommon Degree; as a Mistress, governed by the Laws of Kindness and Humanity; and as a Neighbour, was courteous and obliging to all. Nor was she inattentive to the important Duties she owed to her God and Saviour; but manifested the Sense she had of Religion, by assiduous Endeavours to promote it in her Family, especially in the Minds of her rising Offspring, who have Reason long to remember her affectionate Counsels, respecting their eternal Interest, as well as their discreet and virtuous Behaviour in the World. Deeply impressed with the Loss of so much Goodness, her Children rise up, and call her blessed; her Husband also, and he praiseth her.

WHEREAS I JOHN LEECH, of Blockley, in the county of Philadelphia, yeoman, intend for the future to follow such business and employments as will require my taking voyages over sea, and journies to the back parts of America, and also to take up a tract of land on the Mississippi or Ohio: And as my wife Christine Leech cannot be persuaded to leave this province, I have therefore entered into an agreement with her, both to her satisfaction and my own; and as she is an honest, industrious and virtuous woman, and a very tender mother, I have bound my children to her, that she may bring them up in the best manner she can, and bind them out to such trades or occupations as she may think proper: And I have also given to her full power to bargain and sell, follow any lawful business, receive money, sue for and recover debts, and do any lawful action whatsoever in her own name and authority, and on her own account and credit, for herself, her use and benefit; as I hereafter never will desire any thing or things whatsoever either from her or her heirs: And this my said full power shall never be [illegible] revoked, or made void, but shall be and remain in full force and virtue, during my natural life.

But there are always a certain sort of people, who think to see splinters in their neighbours eyes, but do not take notice of the beam in their own eyes; and who have more need to be concerned about their own, and their nearest relations business, than to trouble themselves about that of other people. To such malicious spiteful persons, whose delight is to create mischief, it is true I have too often listened, which has been the cause of confusion, and misbehaviour on my part, in my family; nevertheless I am in hopes that the above named WILLIAM YOUNG will forgive me, and for the future continue my best friend in this world, and I on my part will behave myself as may become an honest man. THE subscriber, having obtained patents for upwards of 20,000 acres of land, on the Ohio and Great Kanhawa, being part of 200,000 acres, granted by proclamation, in 1754, (10,000 of which are situated on the banks of the first mentioned river, between the mouths of the two Kanhawa's; the remainder on the Great Kanhawa or New River, from the mouth, or near it, upwards in one continued survey) proposes to divide the same into any sized tenements that may be desired, and lease them upon moderate terms, allowing a reasonable number of years, rent free; provided that, within the space of two years from next October, three acres for every fifty contained in each lot, and proportionable for a lesser quantity, shall be cleared, fenced, and tilled, and that by or before the time limited for the commencement of the first rent, five acres for every hundred, and proportionably, as above, shall be inclosed and laid down in good grass for meadow; and moreover, that at least fifty good fruit trees, for every like quantity of land, shall be planted on the premises.

Any persons inclinable to settle upon these lands, may be more fully informed of the terms, by applying to the subscriber, near Alexandria, in Virginia, or, in his absence, to Mr. LUND WASHINGTON; and will do well in communicating their intentions before the first of October next, in order that a sufficient number of lots may be laid off to answer the demand.

As these lands are among the first which have been surveyed, in the part of the country where they lie, it is almost needless to premise, that none can exceed them in luxuriency of soil, or convenience of situation; all of them lying upon the banks either of the Ohio, or Kanhawa, and abounding in fine fish and wild fowl of various kinds, as also in most excellent meadows, many of which (by the bountiful hand of nature) are in their present state almost fit for the scythe.

From every part of these lands water carriage is now had to Fort-Pitt, by an easy communication, and from Fort-Pitt up the Monongahela to Red Stone, vessels of convenient burthen may, and do pass continually; from whence, by means of Cheat River, and other navigable branches of Monongahela, it is thought the portage to Patowmack may, and will be reduced within the compass of a few miles, to the great ease and convenience of the settlers, in transporting the produce of their lands to market; to which may be added that, as patents have now actually passed the seals, for the several tracts here offered to be leased, settlers on them may cultivate and enjoy the land in peace and safety, notwithstanding the unsettled councils, respecting a new colony on the Ohio; and as no right money is to be paid for these lands, and a quitrent of Two Shillings, sterling a hundred, demandable some years hence only, it is highly presumable that they will always be held upon a more desirable footing, than where both these are laid on with a very heavy hand. It may not be amiss further to observe, that if the scheme for establishing a new government on the Ohio, in the manner talked of, should ever be effected, these must be among the most valuable lands in it, not only on account of the goodness of the soil, and the other advantages above-enumerated, but from their contiguity to the seat of government, which more than probable will be fixed at the Mouth of the Great Kanhawa.

Mount Vernon, July 15, 1773. GEORGE WASHINGTON.

WAS stolen, last Monday night, from the subscriber, living in Christiana Hundred, near Wilmington, a MARE, of a deep bay colour, six years old, about fourteen hands and an half high, has no brand nor ear-mark, nor any white about her, her hind hoofs turn in very remarkably, trots and paces. I have great reason to believe the said horse was stolen, by a certain ROBERT JONES, a very great villain and a noted horse-thief, who broke out of Gloucester goal, about 3 years ago, and was then servant to one Allen Gillaspie, of this County; the said Jones was on the plantation the day the said horse was stole: He had on a brownish coat, white breeches, brown worsted stockings; he is a lusty strong made fellow, about 35 years of age, about 5 feet 9 inches high, has short brown hair, was born in Ireland, speaks a little on the brogue. Whoever takes up said horse and thief, shall be intitled to the above reward, and for the horse only, ten dollars, paid by WILLIAM PATTERSON.
